

A photograph showcasing three pieces of industrial-style plumbing hardware. In the center is a tall, black, curved faucet with a high-arched spout. To its left and right are two matching handles, each featuring a black cylindrical base and a gold-colored, four-lobed cross-shaped top. The items are set against a light grey wall with a large, dark, curved shadow cast above them, and they sit on a light-colored concrete ledge. The lighting is dramatic, creating strong shadows.
